

BSNLEU at the verge of split?

After the forcible replacement of Com. V.A.N. Namboodri as General Secretary of BSNLEU at Trivandrum all India conference the BSNLEU is heading for split vertically throughout the country including their strongholds in Kerala & Bengal. Com. Abhimanyu who was elected in place of Com. Namboodri has consolidating his position in the union by side lining and removing the supporters of Com. Namboodri from post throughout the country. This had a reflection in their recently concluded Nagpur CWC meeting. There was big demonstration against Com. Abhimanyu and his leadership. His undemocratic methods were protested by his own members by closing their mouth by black ribbons. It is to be noted that the entire Ahmedabad telephone district in Gujarat circle boycotted the Nagpur meeting. Recently at Chennai a conference of BSNLEU dissidents was held under the banner of "Movement for protecting democracy in BSNLEU". More than 250 delegates participated in this and printed booklet expressing the omissions & commissions of Com. Abhimanyu were circulated to all. They also boycotted the meeting of Com. Abhimanyu at Chennai on 27/11/2010. The said conference of the dissident also taken a decision to host an all India dissidents meeting in Chennai in December-2010. Many of the speakers at the meeting expressed their wish to defeat BSNLEU at the next membership verification so that the autocratic and undemocratic behaviour of Com. Abhimanyu is checkmated. It is worth full to note all these people are expressing their loyalty to Com. Namboodri and did not reconcile to the forcible removal of Com. Namboodri from the General Secretary ship of BSNLEU.

Watch the next few weeks for more such activities inside BSNLEU throughout the country.
